NOTE: SEE OVER.... for details on information required to be submitted when applying for Historic Conditional registration through the Mini Car Club of NSW.

BEFORE applying for or renewing Historic Conditional registration with the Mini Car Club of NSW

YOU MUST:

- 1) Be a current financial member of the Mini Car Club NSW.
(MEMBERSHIP EXPIRES 31 DECEMBER EACH YEAR)
- 2) Have a Safety Inspection (pink slip) carried out by an Authorised person and provide the report number on this CP01 and 1259 sheets.
- 3) Have the car inspected and signed off by an Eligibility examiner from the Mini Car Club.
- 4) Although it is not a requirement we recommend you have a minimum of 3rd Party/ Property insurance for your car.
- 5) Fully complete this checklist on (CP01) form, and sign at the bottom.
- 6) Complete two (2) 1259 Historic Vehicle Declaration forms.
- 7) Send all 4 sheets (CP01, CP03 and duplicate 1259 forms INCLUDING A STAMPED SELF ADDRESSED ENVELOPE to the Historic Plate Registrar, who will stamp and return one 1259 form for you to take to the Services NSW office for registration renewal.
- 8) It is recommended you contact either Rob or Warwick via phone or email prior to posting your documents to ensure they are not away at the time.

(Once returned to you then take the Safety Inspection Certificate (pink slip) and stamped and signed 1259 form to the Services NSW office for registration and/or renewal)

Failure to comply with the MCC and RMS Historic Plate rules may result in your ineligibility to remain on the scheme. It is a member's responsibility to comply, as not doing so may render you and the Mini Car Club of NSW open to litigation should an accident occur and the MCC Historic registration is found to not be in accordance with the above requirements.

If you have any doubts, please ring me or Warwick Butt.
